1. PURPOSE

The FAIS General Code of Conduct requires that a financial services provider (FSP) must establish, maintain and operate an adequate and effective complaints management framework to ensure the effective resolution of complaints and the fair treatment of complainants.

Treating Customers Fairly (TCF) Outcome 6 provides that “Customers do not face unreasonable post-sale barriers imposed by firms to change a product, switch providers, submit a claim or lodge a complaint”.

This document provides a complaints procedure in conformance with legislative expectations and sets out the process that the FSP will follow in order to resolve the complaint.

2. OBJECTIVES

The objectives and key principles of Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd Complaints Management Framework is:

The Complaints Management Framework sets out the approach that Janine Linde Makelaars (Pty) Ltd. is taking to manage complaints to mitigate business and client risks and to achieve compliance with the FAIS Act and subordinate legislation. The FSP is committed to ensure that appropriate measures are in place to enable the FSP to investigate and resolve any complaints received with due regard to the fair treatment of customers.

The Complaints Management Framework aims to assist our staff to apply a consistent, high-quality, fair, and accountable response to complaints.

All complaints will be treated in line with the overall regulatory requirements and Treating Customers Fairly outcomes.

3. KEY DEFINITIONS

The definitions relating to Complaints Management as defined in the FAIS General Code of Conduct as amended on 26 June 2020 are listed in Annexure A.

4. COMPONENTS

The Complaints Management Framework may be made up of different components which address measures to achieve the effective resolution of complaints and the fair treatment of complainants. These components may include a Complaints Policy, Complaints Register, etc. which altogether make up the Complaints Management Framework.

The Complaints Management Framework should provide the business, staff, and clients with a clear and considered process to manage and resolve client complaints. It should explain the steps you would like customers to take when making complaints. It should identify the steps you will take in discussing, considering, addressing, and resolving complaints and indicate some of the solutions you offer to resolve complaints.

Your Complaints Management Framework should be an opportunity to describe to your clients your positive attitude towards discussion and continuous improvement. It should tell clients how much you value their feedback and state your commitment to resolving complaints quickly, fairly, efficiently, and courteously.

The framework must:

- be proportionate to the nature, scale, and complexity of the FSP's business and risks;
- be appropriate for the business model, policies, services, and clients of the FSP;
- enable complaints to be considered after taking reasonable steps to gather and investigate all relevant and appropriate information and circumstances, with due regard to the fair treatment of complainants (clients); and
- not impose unreasonable barriers to complainants (clients).

5. REVIEW

An FSP must regularly review its Complaints Management Framework and document any changes thereto. Refer to Annexure B for a Review Register.

Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd undertakes to review its Complaints Management Framework and document the changes thereto on an annual basis, alternatively whenever there are changes in the business that impact the Complaints Management Framework. A Review Register is set out in Annexure B.

Janine Linde, the Key Individual of Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd, is responsible for reviewing and updating the Complaints Management Framework.

6. PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

Janine Linde Makelaars (Pty) Ltd. will ensure that objectivity and impartiality is applied with regards to the performance standards and remuneration and reward strategies for complaints management.

Performance standards will be measured during each review session to establish the alignment with the FSP's strategy.

7. COMPLAINTS PROCESS OVERVIEW

8. ALLOCATION OF RESPONSIBILITIES

Janine Linde, the Key Individual of Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd, is responsible for handling of the Complaints process.

8.1 COMPLAINTS MANAGEMENT

The board of directors or in the absence of a board, the governing body and key individuals of the FSP is responsible for the effective complaints management and must:

- approve and oversee the effectiveness of the implementation of the business complaints management framework.

Janine Linde, the Key Individual of Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd is responsible for the effective management of complaints.

8.2 DECISION MAKING

Any person that is responsible for making decisions or recommendations in respect of complaints generally or a specific complaint must:

- be adequately trained,
- have an appropriate mix of experience, knowledge, and skills in complaints handling, fair treatment of customers, the subject matter of the complaints concerned and relevant legal and regulatory matters,
- not be subject to a conflict of interest, and
- be adequately empowered to make impartial decisions or recommendations.

Janine Linde, the Key Individual of Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd is responsible for making decisions or recommendations in respect of complaints received within the FSP.

9. CATEGORISATION OF COMPLAINTS

9.1 PRESCRIBED MINIMUM CATEGORIES

At a minimum, the following categories will be used to categorise complaints:

Complaints relating to -

- the design of a financial product, financial service, or related service, including the fees, premiums or other charges related to that financial product or financial service,
- information provided to clients,
- advice,
- financial product or financial service performance,
- a service to clients, including complaints relating to premium or investment contribution collection or lapsing of a financial product;
- financial product accessibility, changes or switches, including complaints relating to redemptions of Investments,
- complaints handling,
- insurance risk claims, including non -payment of claims,
- other complaints.

9.2 ADDITIONAL CATEGORIES

Janine Linde Makelaars (Pty) Ltd. has identified the following additional categories of complaints that is relevant to the FSP's business model, financial products, financial services and client base.

See the Complaints Resolution Process (Annexure C) which stipulates all the various categories that will be used.

9.3 PROCEDURE

Janine Linde Makelaars (Pty) Ltd. will follow the process that has been stipulated in the Complaints Resolution Process (Annexure C) by using the appropriate categorisation of the complaint that has been received.

10. COMPLAINTS RESOLUTION PROCESS

Janine Linde Makelaars (Pty) Ltd. will follow the steps below for all complaints received:

- To request that the complaint is received in writing.

- To acknowledge receipt of the complaint to the client.
- To try and resolve the complaint within 6 weeks from receipt thereof.
- If unable to resolve during this time frame, to inform the client of their re-course.
- Provide the client with the FAIS ombud details and assist the client with the lodgement of the complaint.
- Insert the complaint into the Complaints Register which will indicate the type of complaint received.

11. REPRESENTATIVES AND SUPPLIERS

A Complaints Management Framework must have a process for managing complaints relating to the FSP's representatives and service suppliers, insofar as such complaints relate to services provided in connection with the FSP's financial products, financial services or related services. This process must:

- enable the FSP to reasonably satisfy itself that the representative or service supplier has adequate complaints management processes in place to ensure fair treatment of complainants;
- provide for monitoring and analysis by the FSP of aggregated complaints data in relation to complaints received by its representatives and service suppliers and their outcomes;
- include effective referral processes between the provider and its representatives and service suppliers for handling and monitoring complaints that are submitted directly to either of them and require referral to the other for resolution; and
- include processes to ensure that complainants are appropriately informed of the process being followed and the outcome of the complaint.

Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd will follow the process below for managing complaints relating to representatives and service suppliers:

- To analyse the complaint received and then categorise it to either a representative or product provider.
- If complaint is directly linked to a representative, then a process of identification of complaint needs to be established. If there is a trend of the complaint received, training and corrective measures need to be implemented. If the complaint trend continues, the disciplinary process will need to be followed.
- If a complaint is directly linked to a service provider, then the process of review with the service provider needs to take place. This will be done via a scheduled meeting in which the complaint will be discussed in order for a solution to be found to rectify the complaint. If a solution could not be found, then the client needs to be informed of their re-course.

12. DECISIONS RELATING TO COMPLAINTS

Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd undertakes to ensure that:

- where a complaint is upheld, any commitment by the FSP to make a compensation payment, goodwill payment or to take any other action will be carried out without undue delay and within any agreed timeframes.

- where a complaint is rejected, the FSP will provide the complainant with clear and adequate reasons for the decision and inform the complainant of any applicable escalation or review processes, including how to use them and any relevant time limits.

13. COMPLAINTS ESCALATION AND REVIEW PROCESS

An FSP must establish and maintain an appropriate internal complaints escalation and review process. These procedures should not be overly complicated or impose unduly burdensome paperwork or other administrative requirements on complainants.

The complaints escalation and review process should:

- follow a balanced approach, bearing in mind the legitimate interests of all parties involved including the fair treatment of complainants
- provide for internal escalation of complex or unusual complaints at the instance of the initial complaint handler
- provide for complainants to escalate complaints not resolved to their satisfaction
- be allocated to an impartial, senior functionary within the provider or appointed by the provider for managing the escalation or review process of the business.

13.1. The FSP will use the following process for the escalation and review of complaints:

- 6 weeks to resolve the complaint
- 6 months in which to report it to the FAIS ombud

13.2. Janine Linde is responsible for managing the escalation and review process of complaints.

13.3. Where a complaint requires escalation or review, who will it be escalated to?

Janine Linde will ensure that all complaints are escalated to the FAIS ombud.

13.4. Complaints may be escalated and/or reviewed in the following instances:

- Where the complaint is of a complex or unusual nature. In such an instance the initial complaint handler may escalate the complaint.
- Complainants may escalate complaints that were not resolved to their satisfaction (Complainants must be notified of this).

Janine Linde Makelaars (Pty) Ltd. will review the complaints received on a monthly basis. If the complaint is not resolved, then this complaint will firstly be escalated to the KI and then to the FIAS ombud.

14. RECORD KEEPING, MONITORING AND ANALYSIS

A provider must ensure accurate, efficient and secure recording of complaints and complaints related information. The Complaints Register is a useful tool in this respect.

The following must be recorded in respect of each reportable complaint:

- all relevant details of the complainant and the subject matter of the complaint,
- copies of all relevant evidence, correspondence, and decisions,
- the complaint categorisation,
- progress and status of the complaint, including whether such progress is within or outside any set timelines.

A provider must maintain the following data, on categorised reportable complaints, on an ongoing basis:

- number of complaints received,
- number of complaints upheld,
- number of rejected complaints and reasons for the rejection,
- number of complaints escalated by complainants to the Internal complaints escalation process,
- number of complaints referred to an ombud and their outcome,
- number and amounts of compensation payments made,
- number and amounts of goodwill payments made,
- total number of complaints outstanding.

Complaints Information that has been recorded, must be scrutinised and analysed by the FSP on an ongoing basis. The FSP must use this information to manage conduct risks and implement improved outcomes and processes for its clients, and to prevent recurrences of poor outcomes and errors.

An FSP must establish and maintain appropriate processes for reporting the information to its governing body or senior management.

14.1. The FSP will follow the process below for: record keeping, monitoring and analysing of complaints.

This will be done with the use of the Complaints Register

14.2. The monitoring and analysis of complaints will be reported to the FSP's Key Individual on a monthly basis. The report will include:

- Information on the categorisation of complaints
- What risks have been identified since the last report
- What trends have been identified
- What actions will be taken to manage risks and implement improved outcomes.

14.3. The FSP will keep records of these reports, monitor changes and consider whether the Complaints Management Framework may need to be adapted in response to the findings.

14.4. Responsible person/s

Janine Linde will be responsible for the recordkeeping requirements.

Janine Linde will be responsible for the monitoring requirements.

Janine Linde will be responsible for the analysis requirements.

15. COMMUNICATION WITH COMPLAINANTS

Janine Linde Makelaars (PTY) Ltd will ensure that:

- its complaint processes and procedures are transparent, visible and accessible through channels that are appropriate to the provider's clients.
- It does not impose any charge for a complainant to make use of complaint processes and procedures.
- All communications with a complainant will be in plain language.
- Wherever feasible, it will provide clients with a single point of contact for submitting complaints.
- The following information is disclosed to a client:

- Complainants will be kept adequately informed of:
 - the progress of their complaint
 - causes of any delay in the finalisation of a complaint and revised timelines, and
 - the FSP's decision in response to the complaint.

16. ENGAGEMENT WITH OMBUD AND REPORTING

An FSP must:

- Ensure there is an appropriate process in place for engagement with any relevant Ombud concerning its complaints
- clearly and transparently communicate the availability and contact details of the relevant ombud services to complainants at all relevant stages of the relationship with a client, including at the start of the relationship and in relevant periodic communications,

- Display and/or make available information regarding the availability and contact details of the relevant Ombud services, at the premises and/or on the company website
- Maintain specific records and carry out specific analysis of complaints referred to your business by the Ombud and the outcomes of such complaints
- Monitor determinations, publications, and guidance issued by any relevant Ombud to identify failings or risks in their policies, services, or practices
- Maintain open and honest communication and co-operation between itself and any Ombud with whom it deals; and
- Endeavour to resolve a complaint before a final determination or ruling is made by an Ombud, or through the business' internal escalation process, without impeding or unduly delaying a complainant's access to an Ombud.

16.1. The FSP will follow the process below when engaging with an Ombud:

The FSP will ensure that all communication to the relevant Ombud concerning the complaints are done in writing. The FSP will ensure that it follows the time standard as set by the Ombud before following up on the outcome of the complaint. The FSP will give its full support in assisting the relevant Ombud, to decide on the case in question.

16.2. The FSP will follow the process below when reporting to a designated authority:

The FSP will ensure that all communication to the relevant authority concerning the complaints are done in writing.
